Merry Christmas

Every time I write one of these little articles to signify that the Christmas season is upon us, it strikes me that it doesn't seem long since the last time I said the same thing! And the policemen are looking so young these days...

Anyway, it's been a difficult year for many people and, whilst the same could be said to be true at times for Supported Lives, we are still keeping our heads above water and trying to enable the company to grow and reach it's potential. Clearly the year ahead will not be without its difficulties as the recession continues to bite. Nonetheless, we trust that all will be well as we continue to do our best in providing a good service.

May we all experience this Christmas season as a time of peace and joy. With warm wishes to all our clients, families and staff.

John Drury

On call number

Could I remind you that the on call number is for out of hours contact and emergencies only.

Should you need to pass on any information that is not an emergency then please call the office between 9:00am and 5:00pm Monday to Friday

In cases of emergency then please feel free to contact the on call number outside of office hours. If the emergency arises during office hours please call the usual office number.

Also, please do not send a text message to the on call phone as we sometimes divert calls to our own phones so text messages will not get through. Please ensure you speak to one of us.

Thank you

Simon
